DUAL AND/OR DESIGNATED AGENCY

A Broker is a Dual Agent when a Broker represents both Landlord and Tenant in the same transaction. A Licensee is a Dual Agent when a Licensee represents Landlord and Tenant in the same transaction. All of Broker's licensees are also Dual Agents UNLESS there are separate Designated Agents for Landlord and Tenant. If the same Licensee is designated for Landlord and Tenant, the Licensee is a Dual Agent.

By signing this Agreement, Landlord and Tenant each acknowledge having been previously informed of, and consented to, dual agency, if applicable.

in which the Property is located may have enacted an ordinance or other law that extends the protections for access to housing to additional classes of individuals, such as gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender individuals and couples. Broker and Landlord are advised to check with your local municipality, representative from the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission, or your own attorney for further guidance.

(B) The Fair Housing Act prohibits rental practices which have a discriminatory effect on members of protected classes, including outright bans on offering housing to individuals based on arrests or convictions without a case-by-case assessment of relevant mitigating factors. Consideration of an applicant's criminal history must be limited to convictions and should include an evaluation of the nature and severity of the offense, the amount of time that has passed since the criminal conduct occurred, and whether denial of the application will serve a substantial, legitimate, nondiscriminatory interest. Selective use of an applicant's criminal history as a pretext for intentional discrimination based on race, national origin, or other protected characteristics may be a violation of the Act, as well.

14. FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT

If the Landlord or Broker denies your application based in whole or in part on any information contained in the consumer report authorized by paragraph 16 of this Application, the Landlord or Broker must provide you with oral, written or electronic notice of the denial, and must provide to you: (1) the name, address, and telephone number of the consumer reporting agency (including a toll-free telephone number established by the agency if the agency compiles and maintains files on consumers on a nationwide basis) that furnished the report, (2) a statement that the consumer reporting agency did not make the decision to deny the application and is unable to provide you with the specific reasons why your application was denied, (3) a numerical credit score, the range of possible credit scores under the model used, up to four of the key factors that led to the denial, and the date the credit score was created (4) information about how to obtain a free copy of your consumer report from the consumer reporting agency. If the Landlord or Broker denies your application because of information from a person other than a credit reporting agency (for example, an employer or prior landlord), the Landlord or Broker must provide you with notice about your right to make a written request to discover the nature of that information.
